Morrey Visiting Assistant Professor
Department of Mathematics
University of California, Berkeley
Berkeley, CA 94720

The Department of Mathematics at the University of California, Berkeley invites applications for one or more Morrey Visiting Assistant Professor positions, with an expected start date of July 1, 2019.

The appointment term is at full-time for three years, with an annual salary of $71,500. Duties include conducting research and teaching three single semester courses per year, usually at the upper division and graduate levels.

Applicants must have completed all PhD (or equivalent international degree) requirements, except the dissertation, by the time of application. A PhD (or equivalent international degree) is required by the start date of the job. Preference will be given to candidates at the early stage of their careers, and to candidates with a PhD in Mathematics, Applied Mathematics, or a related field.

APPLICATIONS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED ONLINE via http://www.mathjobs.org. Applicants must provide the following unless indicated otherwise:

• AMS Cover Sheet
• Curriculum Vitae
• List of Publications
• Statement of Research
• Teaching Documentation (i.e., teaching letter and/or student evaluations)
• (OPTIONAL) Statement on Professional Service (service promoting access to and diversity in higher education and the academic profession).
• Applicants must ask three reviewers to submit letters of evaluation through mathjobs.org. Applicants should ensure that letters of evaluation are posted by the application deadline. All letters will be treated as confidential per University of California policy and California state law. Please refer potential referees, including those whose letters are provided via a third party (i.e., dossier service or career center), to the UC Berkeley statement of confidentiality: http://apo.berkeley.edu/evalltr.html prior to submitting their letters.”

Applications must be received on or by December 1, 2018. Please direct questions to Alev Hatay at recruit@math.berkeley.edu.

The University and Mathematics Department are committed to maintaining a diverse and family friendly work environment and are responsive to the needs of dual career couples and to family concerns.
